APPENDIX - VIII

Agreement executed by Hain Manik, Siem of Myllem, relating to the inclusion of the Suburbs of Mawkhar and Laban in the boundaries of the Shillong Station, - 1878.

I, Hain Manik, Siem of Myllem, understanding that it is required by the Chief Commissioner of Assam that the villages of Mawkhar to the northward and Laban to the south-westward of, and adjacent to, the Station of Shillong, and within my territory, should be subjected to sanitary and municipal regulations do hereby agree that the said village of Maokhar and Laban shall be included within the Municipality of Shillong and I agree to pay on account of such villages, and on account of the residents thereof, all rates and taxes which may be provided for, to be paid under the bye-laws, or which may, from time to time, be fixed, by the Commissioners of such Municipality, and to do every and all things required by such Commissioners.

Provided that my proprietary and manorial rights and my authority as Siem within such villages otherwise than necessary to be waived for the purpose of such municipality, shall not be interfered with. I further agree that, for the purposes of this agreement, the limits of the said villages shall be deemed to included the whole of the land at present occupied by such villages, or which may be occupied as such villages shall enlarge and extend : and such limits may be fixed, varied or extended as the Commissioners for the Municipality may from time to time find to be expedient.

No. LXV : Dated Shillong, the 29th November. 1895

From : U Hain Manik, Siem of Myllem.

To : The Deputy Commissioner of the Khasi and Jaintia Hills

With regard to your Parwana No. 367, dated the 29th, October 1895, asking me to allow the land in which the railway authorities build their office, to be included within the limits of the Shillong Municipality, as desired by the Chief Commissioner, in reply, I most respectfully beg to say that as the objection set forth in the previous reports were considered unreasonable, as far as myself is concerned, I have no other objection whatsoever to allow the land to be included within the Municipality. I, therefore, leave it to the consideration of the Government for the inclusion, and so that my right and authority may not be endangered thereby and that no expressed discontent of the landlord of the place and the residents of it be met with and brought against me for this.

APPENDIX - XIII

THE EXTRA-PROVINCIAL JURISDICTION ACT, 1947

(Act No. XLVII of 1947)

Received Governor-General's Assent on 24th December 1947 An Act to provide for the exercise of certain extra-provincial jurisdiction of the Central government

Whereas by treaty, agreement, grant, usage, sufferance and other lawful means, the Central Government has, and may hereafter acquire, jurisdiction in and in relation to areas outside the Provinces of India;

It is hereby enacted as follows :

Short Title. 1. This Act may be called the Extra-Provincial Jurisdiction Act, 1947.

Definition 2. In this Act,

(a) "extra-provincial jurisdiction" means any jurisdiction which by treaties, agreement, grant, usage, sufferance or other lawful means the Central Government has for the time being in or in relations to any area outside the Provinces;

(b) "jurisdiction" includes rights, power and authority.

Exercise of jurisdiction. 3 (1) It shall be lawful for the Central Government to exercise extra-provincial jurisdiction in such manner as it thinks fit.

(2) The Central Government may delegate any such jurisdiction as aforesaid to any officer or authority in such manner and to such extent as it thinks fit.

Power to make orders. 4 (1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make such orders as may seem to it expedient for the effective exercise of any extra-provincial jurisdiction of the Central Government.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred by sub-section (1), any order made under that sub-section may provide

(a) for determining the law and procedure to be observed, whether by applying with or without modifications all or any of the provisions of any enactment in force in any province or otherwise;

(b) for determining the persons who are to exercise jurisdiction, either generally or in particular cases or classes of cases, and the powers to be exercised by them;

(c) for determining the courts, judges, magistrates and authorities by whom and for regulating the manner in which any jurisdiction exercised under this Act is to be exercised within any Province and

(d) for regulating the amount, collection and application of fees.

Validity of acts done in pursuance of jurisdiction.

5. Every act and thing done, whether before or after the commencement of this Act, in pursuance of any extra-provincial jurisdiction of the Central Government in an area outside the Provinces shall be as valid as if it had been done according to the local law then in force in that area.

Evidence as to existence or extend of jurisdiction.

6(1) If in any proceeding, civil or criminal, in a court established in the Provinces or by the authority of the Central Government outside the Provinces, any question arises as to the existence or extent of any extraprovincial jurisdiction of the Central Government, the Secretary to the Government of India in the appropriate department shall, on the application of the Court, send to the court the decision of the Central Government, on the question, and that decision shall for the purposes of the proceeding be final.

(2) The Court shall send to the said Secretary, in a document under the seal of the court or signed by a judge of the Court questions framed so as properly to raise the question, and sufficient answers to those questions shall be returned to the Court by the Secretary and those answers shall on production thereof be conclusive evidence of the matters therein contained.

Repeal and saving. (1) The Extra-Provincial Jurisdiction Ordinance 1947 is hereby repealed.

(2) Any order made, anything done or any action taken in exercise of any power conferred by or under the said Ordinance shall be deemed to have been made, done or taken in exercise of powers conferred by or under this Act as if this Act had commenced on the 27th day of August, 1947.

Notes : This Act replaces Ordinance No. 15 of 1947.
